

ANTI-BULLYING POLICY

1. Purpose

We are committed to providing a caring, friendly and safe environment for all of our students so they can learn in a relaxed and secure atmosphere.

2. Policy

Bullying of any kind is unacceptable at our college. If bullying does occur, all students should be able to tell and know that incidents will be dealt with promptly and effectively. This means that anyone who knows that bullying is happening is expected to tell a member of the college staff. If a student feels that they are being bullied by a member of college staff they should be aware of the procedure they can follow to address the problem.

- The Principal, governors, senior and college managers, teaching and non-teaching staff, students and parents will have an understanding of what bullying is.
- The Principal, governors, senior and college managers, teaching and non-teaching staff will know what the college policy is on bullying, and follow it when bullying is reported.
- All students will know what the college policy is on bullying, and what they should do if bullying arises.
- Truro & Penwith College take bullying seriously. Students and parents should be assured that they will be supported when bullying is reported.
- Bullying will not be tolerated.

Truro & Penwith College recognises bullying as:

The use of aggression with the intention of hurting another person. Bullying results in pain and distress to the victim.

Bullying can be:

- Emotional being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting (e.g. threatening gestures, interfering with personal possessions).
- Physical pushing, kicking, hitting, punching or any use of violence
- Racist racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
- Sexual unwanted physical contact or sexually abusive comments
- Homophobic because of, or focussing on the issue of sexuality
- Verbal name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing
- Cyber All areas of internet, such as email & internet chat room misuse
Mobile threats by text messaging & calls
Misuse of associated technology, i.e. camera & video facilities

Bullying hurts. No one deserves to be a victim of bullying. Everybody has the right to be treated with respect. Students who are bullying need to learn different ways of behaving.

The college has a responsibility to respond promptly and effectively to issues of bullying.

3. Implementation

It is the responsibility of all tutors, student services staff, learning support staff and college support staff to recognise that a young person may indicate by signs or behaviour that he or she is being bullied. All college staff should be aware of these possible signs and that they should investigate if a young person:-

- is frightened of walking to or from college
- doesn't want to go on the usual mode of transport and asks/begs to be driven to college
- changes their usual routine
- is unwilling to go to college
- begins to have a poor attendance record
- becomes withdrawn, anxious or lacking in confidence
- starts stammering
- attempts or threatens suicide or runs away
- has difficulty sleeping, cries themselves to sleep at night or has nightmares
- feels ill in the morning
- begins to do poorly in college work
- has possessions which are damaged or " go missing"
- asks for money or starts stealing money (to pay bully)
- has unexplained cuts or bruises
- comes home starving (money / lunch has been stolen)
- becomes aggressive, disruptive or unreasonable
- is bullying other students or siblings
- stops eating
- is frightened to say what's wrong
- gives improbable excuses for any of the above
- is afraid to use the internet or mobile phone
- is nervous & jumpy when a cyber message is received

These signs and behaviours could indicate other problems, but bullying should be considered a possibility and should be investigated

All Truro & Penwith College Staff will:

1. Report bullying incidents to the tutor who will try to deal with the case in the first instance.
2. In cases of serious bullying, the incidents will be recorded by tutor and passed to the PTL
3. In serious cases parents should be informed and will be asked to come in to a meeting to discuss the problem. A member of SMT should be informed
4. If necessary and appropriate, police will be consulted
5. The bullying behaviour or threats of bullying must be investigated and the bullying stopped quickly
6. An attempt will be made to help the bully (bullies) change their behaviour

7. Inform students of the correct procedure to follow if it is a member of staff that is accused of bullying i.e. Report to their tutor and then to PTL. The PTL will deal with the issue in consultation with a member of SMT.

The outcomes will be:

- 1) The bully (bullies) may be asked to genuinely apologise. Other consequences may take place.
- 2) In serious cases, the student disciplinary policy will be implemented
- 3) If possible, the students will be reconciled
- 4) After the incident / incidents have been investigated and dealt with, each case will be monitored to ensure repeated bullying does not take place
- 5) The incident will be logged on the College Bullying Log.

We will use supportive methods for helping students to prevent bullying. As and when appropriate, these may include:

- Signing a student code of conduct/learner agreement (part of the induction process)
- Having discussions about bullying and why it matters during group tutorial sessions.
- Have clear guidelines on 'what to do if you are bullied' in student services.
- Providing student support services to students who need additional support.

Staff with specific responsibility:

- Programme Team Leader
- Deputy Team Leader
- Tutors
- Student services staff
- Learning support staff
- Student Association
- College Counsellors
