LAW WITH BUSINESS AND CRIMINOLOGY

LAW WITH BUSINESS OR CRIMINOLOGY – WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Law with Business focuses on advising companies and governments on business-related issues. Lawyers handle a range of corporate and standalone transactions and are responsible for negotiating and creating contracts e.g. – the supply of goods.

Law with Criminology covers any form of criminal behaviour, regardless of scale or severity.

FDSC LAW CASE STUDY

Rosie completed her FdSc Law in 2010. After her top-up year at the University of Plymouth she passed the Graduate Diploma in Law and the Legal Practice Course. Rosie completed her Training Contract at Conroys Solicitors, Truro and was admitted to the roll as a fully qualified solicitor in April 2017.

SALARY

The Law sector pays some of the highest graduate salaries in the country. Trainee lawyers' salaries vary across the UK and your location is one of the biggest factors affecting what you'll earn. The Law Society recommends that trainee lawyers should earn a minimum of £22,500 if training in London and £19,900 elsewhere in the country, with a considerable jump when qualified. Along with geographical location, the area of law you choose to specialise in can have a big impact on your earnings.

CVS AND JOB INTERVIEWS

WHAT IS A CV AND JOB INTERVIEW?

A CV or Curriculum Vitae is a written summary of your skills and qualifications that can be attached to a job application or presented on its own to promote yourself to potential employers. A job interview is when the employer finds out if you are the right person for the job in terms of your professional, personal, and interpersonal skills. It is also the chance for you to decide whether it is the right job for you.

WHAT TO INCLUDE IN A CV?

- Contact details
- Personal profile
- Your education history
- Your work experience history
- Hobbies, interests, and achievements
- References

KEY TIPS ON WRITING A CV

- Create different versions of your CV for different roles that you might consider
- Be concise and to the point
- Proofread and check spelling and grammar
- Match the sections of information with the skills description linked to the role or identified in the job advert
- Always send with a covering letter

KEY TIPS ON PREPARING FOR A JOB INTERVIEW

- Plan your journey
- Prepare your clothes the night before
- Be polite, friendly, and professional
- Body language is significant in terms of creating a good impression
- Answer the questions as fully as you can, using good examples to illustrate your skills

SKILLS FOCUSED CV

This often provides a mini profile of you as an individual and then provides examples that demonstrate evidence of you being able to apply the main skills you have developed in various areas of your life that employers are looking for. This type of CV is also useful if you have gaps in your employment history, limited experience or are applying for a job which is unrelated to your degree.

CHRONOLOGICAL CV

Sometimes known as a traditional CV, it is used to match your qualifications and work experience with the requirements for the job role. This type of CV is structured in reverse chronological order i.e. the most recent qualifications and experience are listed first. This CV template makes it easy for employers to identify potential candidates and for you to match your qualifications, work history and responsibilities with the criteria on the job description.

CREATIVE CV

A creative CV is used in customer-facing and creative roles in marketing, arts, sales, and media. It can allow you to provide links to an online portfolio or video to create an impact and give a glimpse into who you are and how you can help organisations grow and deliver value to their customers.

ACADEMIC CV

Focusing on educational achievements, this type of CV is used when applying for teaching or research-based roles. They differ to other CVs and include sections on publications, teaching experience, research activities, conferences, and presentations. It is important to keep the CV concise and to target it to the role's requirements.
