Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended)

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.' 'Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website.

Do you have any unspent conditional cautions or convictions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?
Yes No

Do you have any adult cautions (simple or conditional) or spent convictions that are not protected as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2020?
Yes No

b. If 'Yes' please supply details (this will not necessarily debar you from appointment)

Safeguarding

As Truro and Penwith College meets requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, all applicants who are offered employment will be subject to a criminal record check from the Disclosure & Barring Service before the appointment is confirmed. This will include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings, as well as convictions.

All offers of employment will be subject to satisfactory clearance. No check will be made unless you are the final selected candidate and have no objection to enquiries being made. Failure to give your consent will result in the College being unable to give further consideration to your employment.

If appointed, do you consent to a check being made? Yes No

Arrangements for interview:

If you have a disability are there any arrangements which we can make for you if you are called for an interview?
Yes No

If yes, please specify (e.g. sign language, interpreter, audio tape, etc)

Referees

You must provide a minimum of 2 references, one of whom should be your current employer. References will not be accepted by relatives or by people writing solely in the capacity of friends.
