A LEVEL DRAMA & THEATRE

This course will allow you to learn and work through creative collaboration, expanding your performance knowledge of drama and theatre by making original work whilst also studying influential playwrights, practitioners and theatre companies that make theatre so exciting and diverse.

Level 3 · A Level (or equivalent) · Truro College

TOP COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

EXCEPTIONAL FACILITIES | EXCELLENT TUTOR SUPPORT | THEATRE VISITS AND WORKSHOPS | CREATIVE COLLABORATION

DEDICATED PERFORMANCE SPACES

We have an excellent learning environment; our classes take place in a theatre space or a drama rehearsal room. This dedicated space develops your understanding of professional working theatre.

EXPERIMENT WITH STYLES

The opportunity to learn about a subject in a practical and collaborative way. In A Level Drama and Theatre, we are active and explore theory practically, 'on our feet', experimenting with styles and theory to develop your performance and production skills.

ACCESS PERFORMANCES

To develop your understanding of professional practice, we go on theatre visits and invite productions and practitioners into college to lead workshops. We also have access to Digital Theatre and National Theatre filmed performances that you can watch from home.

WHY CHOOSE THIS COURSE?

Do you want to develop your creative potential? Work alongside others in a fun and inspiring way? By building performance, directing and design skills we encourage learners to articulate their personal and artistic viewpoints and make exciting, challenging theatre performances. Drama is a collaborative course and will help you to develop important communication skills and confidence, contributing to your personal and social development. Through studying drama, we recognise the important role it plays in helping us to understand social issues, human interaction, and the wider world. You will be inspired by live theatre, experimentation and professional practice and seek to apply these reflections to support your practical and written responses to the plays that we study.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

If you love drama and theatre and want an outlet for your creativity, this course will provide you with the opportunity to grow as a theatre practitioner. You will study a range of key theatrical practitioners and apply their theories to your own practical work whilst honing your performance skills. You will be encouraged by working to professional standards of collaboration, analysing, and evaluating performances, published texts and your own practice. On this course you will be able to try new areas of drama and theatre such as technical theatre, directing, scriptwriting and choreography.

FOR THE LATEST COURSE INFORMATION
Scan for assessment arrangements, learner support, confirmed start dates and how to apply.

WHERE WILL IT TAKE ME?

By building transferable skills our students have the option of university to study any degree subject. Popular routes include Drama, English, Media, Education and Humanities or a vocational route such as Drama School to study acting, musical theatre or production. You can progress onto many careers that require creativity, leadership, confidence, and teamwork. Career examples include a career in acting, directing or technical theatre. This course also develops relevant skills for Film and Media, Teaching, Law, Youth and Social Work.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Five GCSEs at Grade 5 to include Grade 5 in Drama or Grade 5 in an English or Humanities subject if you haven't taken drama at GCSE. An interest in all aspects of drama – performance, directing, studying plays and design is essential.

IMPORTANT

Course information can change. Please use the QR code below for the current assessment arrangements, entry requirements and start dates.

FOR THE LATEST COURSE INFORMATION

Scan for assessment arrangements, learner support, confirmed start dates and how to apply.