WHERE WILL IT TAKE ME?

At university, Spanish can be studied with almost any other subject such as Business, Law and Science and is a language of huge global importance. Many linguists go into broadcast journalism, politics, teaching, translation, or the Civil Service. Language graduates also have the highest employment rate after students of Medicine, Dentistry and Veterinary Science.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Five GCSEs at Grade 4 or above including a minimum of Grade 6 in Spanish and Grade 6 or above in English Language or English Literature. Successful A Level students would normally have achieved high grades in a number of relevant GCSE subjects. An interest in Spanish language, grammar and culture is also essential.
