ILM L3 AWARD IN LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

Level 3 · Other · STEM & Health Skills, Bodmin

PART-TIME INFORMATION

This training course is ideal for managers who want to increase their confidence to manage a range of team activities. It equips managers with the knowledge and skills needed to lead, develop, motivate and engage their teams. The course also focuses on solving work-based problems to achieve tangible business improvements.

By attending this ILM management and leadership training course managers will:

- Gain a range of leadership and management skills
- Develop their ability to solve work-based problems leading to tangible improvements
- Develop, motivate and engage their team and develop confidence in communicating with other managers
- Gain an internationally recognised qualification which is valued by employers

Course content:

Developing yourself & others

- Assessing development needs and how to address them
- Objective setting and effective planning
- Developing others – different learning styles

Solving problems and making decisions

- Identifying work-based problems and improvement opportunities
- Root-cause analysis techniques
- Generating creative solutions and overcoming obstacles
- Evaluating options and criteria-based decision making
- Implementing recommended solutions and monitoring outcomes

Leading & motivating a team effectively

- Creating and communicating purpose and direction
- Ensuring individuals understand their role within the organisation
- Aligning objectives through effective communication
- Developing team motivation and performance

IMPORTANT

Course information can change. Please use the QR code below for the current assessment arrangements, entry requirements and start dates.

FOR THE LATEST COURSE INFORMATION

Scan for assessment arrangements, learner support, confirmed start dates and how to apply.