LEARN FROM SECTOR EXPERTS

You will be taught by staff with extensive experience who will advance your knowledge and skills to meet the expectations of the uniformed services sector.

COURSEWORK BASED

During your programme of study, the emphasis will be on vocational delivery which will help prepare you for full-time work after you have completed the course.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Enjoy regular visits and experiences linked to a range of uniformed services. Our teaching areas are kitted out with excellent equipment and resources to help support the learner's experience.

WHY CHOOSE THIS COURSE?

This qualification aims to provide an opportunity to allow students to progress onto careers in the uniformed services. We will prepare learners for a variety of recruitment interviews, and learners will understand the personal commitment and fitness requirements needed to be employed in a uniformed service role. Learners will have the opportunity to understand and develop the skills and qualities needed to work in a range of uniformed services e.g. leadership skills, conflict management, personal protection, teamwork, communication, navigation, and drill. How external organisations impact on and influence the work of the uniformed services and an awareness of how uniformed services organisations respond in emergency situations will also be assessed.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

The course will help to develop essential skills and knowledge, such as research, presentation, and report-writing. The building of confidence, through understanding and improving ability in outdoor activities, physical fitness, discipline, teamwork, and communication is a core aim. The demonstration that sensitivity and openness are equally important assets when working with diverse groups is also explored. Over the two years of the course, you will cover 19 units which are assessed by a combination of written and practical assignments.
