4.8 Specific Circumstances

Young People, or adult students, who may pose a risk to others. Where a young person or other student's history indicates that s/he poses a sexual or physical risk to other young people or adults, a risk assessment must be undertaken by appropriate professionals, to determine whether the person can form part of the college community, and adequate arrangements put in place both to support that person, and provide supervision sufficiently to ensure the safety of others.

Most of our 14-16 Young College learners are on roll at another education establishment. Protocols are in place between the Designated Safeguarding Leads at these establishments to ensure immediate and effective communication regarding unexplained absence and any concerns of suspected or actual abuse.

Where it is known that a 14-16 year old is not on roll elsewhere, the MARU will be consulted for advice.

Radicalisation is the process by which individuals come to support terrorism or violent extremism. The college will continue to empower its students to create communities that are resilient to extremism and to protect those who may be vulnerable to being drawn into violent extremism or crime. There is no typical profile for a person likely to become involved in extremism. Staff should use their professional judgement and discuss with other colleagues or a member of the Safeguarding team if they have concerns in relation to the list of behavioural indicators below:

- Use of inappropriate language
- Possession of violent extremism literature
- Behaviour changes
- The expression of extremist views
- Advocating violent actions and means
- Association with known extremists
- Seeking to recruit others to an extremist ideology

If there are significant concerns the Designated Safeguarding Lead should be notified and discussions will take place with the designated local police to work to address the issue.

6.3 The discussion will also include information regarding Social Care contact with the child's/young person's/vulnerable adult's family/care giver. In support of this process, any contact with parents/carers by other members of staff will be referred to the named person.
